

SUT Offshore Site Investigation and Geotechnics Group

GeoForum FREE Evening Event: “Renewables - an Evolving Geoscience Approach to UK Round 3 Offshore Windfarm Mega-sites”

Wednesday 15 February 2012, 1730hrs for 1800hrs
Lloyds Register EMEA, 71 Fenchurch Street, London EC3M 4BS

Chairman: Mike Baker, GEMS International NV

Presenters Senergy
Invited from: Gardline
GEMS
Offshore Developer—To Be Confirmed

Each presenter will have 15-25 minutes to present relevant topics on the above theme with views from Consultants, Contractors and Developers.

It is hoped that a lively debate and discussion amongst presenters and attendees will follow the presentations.

Buffet/refreshments will follow at nearby
The Crutched Friar, 39-41 Crutched Friars, EC3N 2AE

The Offshore Site Investigation and Geotechnics (OSIG) Committee of the SUT established the GeoForum in 2001. The GeoForum aims to provide a focal point and discussion group for professionals involved in the offshore Geoscience industries.

This event is FREE to attend but as places are strictly limited to 60
please pre-register with SUT by contacting Nicola Taylor:
nicola.taylor@sut.org t 01224 823637